MAUI'S MANY SENSATIONS

Geo. Groves Shot by Honolulu Boy.

ACCIDENTS ON A ROUGH SEA

Murderous Assault of a Porto Rican Laborer Upon His Wife and Child.

MAUI, February 15, 1902.—Sunday afternoon, the 9th, George Groves, who has charge of Awana's store at Huelo, was accidentally shot in the jaw by Robert Plunkett, a student of Kamehameha College, now at his Huelo home on a vacation. The two were "skylarking" in vicinity of the store, when Plunkett picked up a shotgun, which he believed to be unloaded and aimed at Groves, saying, "Now I'll take your picture with a kodak." The gun was loaded, however, and went off, striking Groves on one side of the mouth, tearing, shattering and lacerating his jaw in a most frightful manner, pieces of the jaw bone being driven deep into the flesh. At the time of the accident the two men were standing about nine feet apart. Before Dr. Dinegar reached the scene of the shooting, Groves had lost so much blood that his life was despaired of for a time. He is now doing well.

As soon as he recovered consciousness he declared that no blame should be attached to Plunkett, and later signed a written statement to that effect. In spite of this, for the sake of example, the sheriff ordered Plunkett arrested and afterward released him upon a $300 bond. In explanation it should be stated that Plunkett had used the gun but a short time before the accident and had left the two barrels free of cartridges. His younger brother, in the meantime, had used the gun and carelessly forgot to remove the shells. Plunkett has suffered terribly, both physically and mentally, for his part in the affair. When he saw what he had done, he was taken with a violent fit, foamed at the mouth, and became unconscious, requiring the utmost efforts of Dr. Dinegar to overcome his paroxysms.

ACCIDENT TO STEAMER.

Owing to an accident to the steamer "Maui" at Nahuiku—striking a rock—she went on immediately to Honolulu, taking no mail. The mail of central Maui was forwarded to Lahaina, to catch the Kinau.

JAPANESE LOST.

During Wednesday, the 12th inst., a Japanese fishing boat containing three men left Kahului on a fishing trip. While at sea, the kona wind became so strong that they couldn't make a landing till Friday on account of the high surf rolling upon the shores. On Friday they attempted to land at Honapo, Huelo, and smashed their boat on the rocks in doing so. One of the five Japanese is missing, as only four of the fishermen crawled safely upon the rocky shore. Deputy Sheriff Kalama is looking into the matter.

The Maui Soda and Ice Works of Wailuku have recently become a corporation with a capital stock of $35,000, with the privilege of increasing it to $100,000. As this was one of Maui's "gilt edged" investments, the $15,000 worth of stock was quickly taken, for subscribers were at hand to take up $10,000 of additional stock if it had been issued. Mr. R. A. Wadsworth, the originator of the enterprise, retained $20,000 worth of stock and the control of the incorporated company. In case that water power can be obtained from Iao valley or elsewhere it is the intention of the company to extend its business lines so as to include the furnishing of electric lights to the community, and the establishment of a steam laundry.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

On the 11th a Porto Rican laborer on the Grove Ranch section of Pala Plantation was arrested for assaulting his wife and child with a knife. For some trivial cause (his family refusing to go to Kahului with him), he flew into a terrible rage, and ran at the woman and child with a knife. Some bystanders, however, seized him in time to prevent any serious consequences. Head Luna Frank Alexander was summoned and took him to the plantation office, and finally gave him into the hands of the police. His case will be tried next Tuesday.

GENERAL NOTES.

On Friday, the 14th, telephone men were busy all over the island in repairing poles and wires disarranged by the kona.

This afternoon at Sunnyside, Pala, the Makawao Club will have a practice game of polo. The members think that they must do much hard work in the way of team evolutions if they wish to compete with Oahu successfully in March or April.

Dr. Dinegar of Kihel is residing at present at Spreckelsville for he has not only his own practice but that of Dr. McConkey to look after.

Dr. McConkey is still confined to his house, suffering from pains in the head. The Makawao Literary Society will celebrate Washington's birthday during the evening of the 21st at Maunaloa Seminary, Pala. Everybody is to appear in costumes appropriate to the days of 1776, and the program will correspond to the sentiments of those days.

On the afternoon of the 13th the Ladies' Reading Club of Makawao met at the residence of Mrs. W. O. Aiken of Puuomalei. Washington Irving was the author read.

Workmen are busy taking off the roof of the old Spreckelsville mill, the machinery having been removed some time ago.

Weather: Strong kona gales for four days, terminating temporarily Friday night with some rain.

THE HAIR BRUSH.

Breeds Dandruff, Which Causes Falling Hair and Finally Baldness.

Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says that dandruff is as contagious as any other malevolent disease and that one common source of the spread of dandruff is the use of the same hair brush by different persons. The way to avoid catching dandruff or any other disease from another's brush is to insist on the use of Newbro's Herpicide. It not only kills the dandruff germ, but it is also an antiseptic that will prevent the catching of any disease whatever through contagion of another's brush.

AMONG ABSENT SOCIETY PEOPLE

The Von-Hamm Reception at Denver—Miss Young's Luncheon.

Following is from the Denver Republic:

One of the extremely pretty card parties for which this week has been remarkable was given by Mrs. Conrad C. von Hamm on Friday afternoon in the spacious reception rooms of the first floor of the Metropole. The afternoon was a sojourn in China, and all the decorations and appointments were of the most charmingly Chinese nature. The rooms were profusely decorated with Chinese umbrellas and strings of lanterns, and with Chinese fans, draperies and other Chinese ornaments, mingled with palms, and tropical plants, ferns and hundreds of electric lights softly veiled with Chinese shades, transformed the ordinary reception room into the most attractive of Chinese quarters. The pretty idea was carried out in all the details of the afternoon. The score cards were daintily handpainted little affairs of Chinese character with a ribbon attached to which a Chinese coin was strung at the winning of every game. Delightful music was furnished throughout the afternoon by Lohmann's string quintet, and one of the most delightful afternoons of the season spent by the guests. Mrs. von Hamm was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. James Irons, Mrs. Leslie Farree, Mrs. Adolph Baer and Mrs. Joseph Howard. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. David Brunton, Mrs. Fred Howes, Mrs. George Brand, Mrs. Adolph Baer, Mrs. Nick Bulkeley, Mrs. Frank Bulkeley, Mrs. Frank J. Campbell, Mrs. A. C. Cass, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. Leslie C. Farree, Mrs. Joseph Howard, Mrs. James Irons, Mrs. Thomas Keadley, Mrs. Amanda Jones, Mrs. Gilbert Newkirk, Mrs. Charles F. Potter, Mrs. O. J. Pfeiffer, Mrs. William G. Russell, Mrs. Robert Royal, Mrs. Anna Smith, Mrs. Frank Spaulding, Mrs. George Vallery, Mrs. West, Mrs. Robert Wright, Mrs. Charles Wilt, Mrs. Clarence Lloyd Wheaton, Miss Emily Halstead, Miss Sallie Henry, Miss Helen Gauss, and Miss Wright.

The prizes, which were very handsome and in keeping with the design of the afternoon, were taken by Miss Helen Gauss, who took first prize, a beautiful bronze vase decorated with Chinese designs; Mrs. Max Bohmer, second prize, one of Helen Hyde's colored etchings; the consolation prize was won by Mrs. James Irons and was a beautiful little water color painting.

Following is from the San Francisco Chronicle:

One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was given today at "Rose Crest," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, when Miss May Young was the hostess. The guests of honor were Miss Anita Oliver and Miss Pearl King.

The dining room was decked entirely in ferns and pink roses. From the chandelier was suspended a great ball of maidenhair fern, from which were hung garlands of Cecil Bruner roses and fern, wound on pink ribbon and fastened to the name cards with beautiful gold sticks. The cards themselves were decorated with tiny pink buds in water color. The table was adorned with pink ribbon and fern artistically arranged with bunches of roses. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Miss Anita Oliver, Miss Pearl King, Miss Young, Miss May Young, Miss Oliver, Miss Marjette Havens, Miss Fore, Miss Ione Fore, Miss Isabella Kenna, Miss May Burdge, and Miss Gertrude Allen.

Later in the afternoon the lunch guests were joined by others, and a delightful afternoon passed at five-handed euchre. Among those present were: Miss Florence Hayden, Miss Ada Kenna, Miss Beaul Palmer, Miss Cordelia Bishop, Miss Joan Clift, Miss Tishie, Miss May Coogan, Miss Maude Edith Pope, Miss Knowles, Miss Ethel Bates, Miss Edna Barry, Miss Jacquelin Moore and Miss Edith Gaskill.

HIS FIRST PROFITS.

The Visitor—Horror! The lightning express wrecked and totally destroyed by fire. Young Artist—Hurrah! Good! "Are you crazy?" "No; but I expressed a drawing on that train and I valued it at $50. Now the express company will have to pay for it."—Life.

THE WORLD MOVES.

Uncle Josh—"Why, yes; they have agricultural schools where they teach scientific farming." "I'll have schools where they teach scientific bunco steer!"—Puck.

AS TO CLEANNESS.

"Yes," said the ticket agent, "our road will make you through clean to Chicago." "Through clean, eh? Then it doesn't go by way of Pittsburgh, does it?"
